POLICE REPORT

The board asked OIC/Chief Kyle Amidon to have patrol during the evening hours now that school is out, the need for patrol around the school is not as necessary. Reports of nuisance in the late hours and early morning hours at residences homes are a concern.

The board discussed the MOU with Canisteo in the amount of $5,000.00. Trustee Flint asked if this amount would continue every year or be evaluated each year as presented last year. Trustee Flint assumed the amount would not have to remain at $5,000.00 and anticipated it would be less. Further discussion continued and it was agreed to move forward with the $5,000.00 payment this year and revisit the possibility of the amount being less in the future. OIC/Chief Amidon explained that some of the cost is in clothing officers and providing necessary safety equipment for each officer that comes to the Village of North Hornell. Trustee Flint asked for a detailed inventory to support the continued $5,000.00 cost to the Village.

Trustee Joshua Greenthal motioned to approve the $5,000.00 annual cost for 2022-2023 to be sent to Canisteo, seconded by Trustee Peter DiRaimondo and carried.
